

HPD Incident #: 28573708

Name: Unknown

Date: Tuesday, February 26, 2008

Time: 1:20 PM

Location:

Offense: Robbery with Bodily Injury

The female victim was approached, while working, at Whitehall Jewelers, in Baybrook Mall, by two black males, inquiring to purchase an engagement ring for a girlfriend. The victim showed suspect (with a tattoo on his neck) a solitaire engagement ring. The suspect inquired about the price and the victim, took the ring back and placed it in the display case. The suspect reached over the counter, pushed the female forcefully causing her to fall onto the floor, reached into the cabinet and stole three diamond engagement rings. During the entire Robbery suspect #2 was silent.

The surveillance photographs shown were not obtained from Whitehall Jewelers but from Samuels Jewelers, in San Jacinto mall, who was also robbed. The Samuels Jewelers robbers fit the description and requested service in the same manner as in the Whitehall Jewelers robbery.
